MOTOROLA COMMUNICATIONS SECTOR FACILITIES CAMPUS, ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS

Motorola responded to energetic growth in the cellular phone industry and its own cellular telephone division with a major expansion of its corporate campus. Phase I involved the construction of a new division headquarters. The 210,000 square foot office building is designed to be aesthetically compatible with existing structures, yet reflect the innovative and creative technology housed inside. Phase II called for completion of a 400,000 square foot high tech engineering and production center.
