SARDINE, MADISON, WISCONSIN

For the owners of Madison's beloved Marigold Kitchen, which we designed in 2001, VDTA designed a unique new restaurant that captures the atmosphere of an authentic French bistro in a vintage renovated industrial building. The building, which originally housed a farm-implements showroom, overlooks Lake Monona. The lake view is the focal point of the terrace and bar. The main dining room and private dining rooms look onto the street, giving the restaurant a terrific urban energy. The 4,200 Sf space seats 130 patrons. In 2006, both the Capital Times and Isthmus named Sardine Madison's "Best New Restaurant."
